Dr. Timothy L. Beard
Keynote Speaker

Dr. Timothy L. Beard began his illustrious secular career in secondary education in 1984 with Leon County Schools. As a graduate student at Florida State University from 1985-1987, Dr. Beard served in the role as a Career Advisor and Analyst. Dr. Beard returned to Higher Education at Florida A&M University in 1989 as an Assistant Director of the Career Center. From 1990-1999, he worked at the joint FAMU-FSU College of Engineering in several capacities, including Director of Career Services, Director of Instructional Research, Director of Minority Student Affairs, Instructor, and Director of Graduate Student Services.

In 1999, Dr. Beard was appointed Assistant Professor of Health Care Management and Director of Student Affairs in the School of Allied Health Sciences at FAMU. In 2001, Dr. Beard was acknowledged by his colleagues at FAMU, President Frederick Humphries and the University's administration as "Teacher of the Year." In 2000, Dr. Beard was appointed by Governor Jeb Bush to serve on the State Board of Independent Colleges and Universities, which he served to provide oversight to more than 300 Florida and foreign private colleges and universities.

Dr. Beard's career catapulted to a new level in 2003 when he was appointed the first African American senior administrator in the history of the University of South Alabama. He served in the capacity of Dean and Vice-President of Student Affairs from 2003-2007. Since 2007, Dr. Beard has served as the Vice-President of Student Development and Enrollment Management at the now Pasco Hernando State College (PHSC). Under his leadership at PHSC, enrollment has increased more than 40 percent. Dr. Beard reached the pinnacle of his career recently as he was selected by the Pasco Hernando State College Board of Trustees to become the College's fourth president, effective July 1, 2015.

Dr. Shirley M. Harvey
Mistress of Ceremony

Dr. Shirley M. Harvey is a native of Dade City, Florida. She graduated from Mickens High School in 1968. She earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Speech Pathology from Florida A&M University, a Master of Science Degree from Nova University in Administration and Supervision, an Educational Specialist and Doctoral Degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Sarasota.

Dr. Harvey served the School District of Hillsborough County for 36 years as a Speech/Language Therapist, Exceptional Student Education Administrator, Middle School Administrator, and High School Principal for Adult Education, substitute teacher advisory board member, and coordinator of the Mentor/Protégé Program for Aspiring Leaders for the school district. Upon retirement in 2009, she continues to serve as an Adjunct Professor of graduate studies at Grand Canyon University and an External Review Team Lead Evaluator for Advanc-Ed Accreditation Division.

Dr. Harvey resides in Brandon, Florida with her husband, Sgt. Edwin Harvey.
